9. Recalls. Individual and General Recalls will be handled in accordance with RRS 29.2. Individual premature starters may be hailed by sail number on VHF 68. Failure to hear the hail or any issues arising from order of the hails will not be grounds for redress.

10. Change of Course after the Start. A change of course after the start will be signaled before the leading boat has begun the leg, although the new mark may not be in position. Any mark to be rounded may be relocated to maintain the original course configuration, after all the boats on that leg have completed it.

11. Abandonment or Shorten Course. Race Committee may abandon the race or shorten course for any reason. Abandonment will not be grounds for redress.

12. The Finish. The finish line will be between the orange post amidships on the Race Committee signal boat and the nearby mark.

13. Time Limit. If any boat has finished by 20:30 hours, it is a race for that entire class. If no boat in a class has finished by the prescribed time, the race is to be considered abandoned, RRS 35, with no plan to re-sail. Boats failing to finish by 21:00 will be scored DNF. The race committee reserves the right to finish boats in place should conditions warrant.

14. Protests. Protests will be in accordance with RRS 61 except as follows:

   Boats intending to protest will, after finishing or retiring, notify Race Committee at the finishing line of the sail number of the protested boat. A boat that has retired may notify Race Committee ashore if unable to do so on the water.

   Boats intending to protest shall conspicuously display the "B" flag or similar red flag from the backstay at the first reasonable opportunity after the incident.

   Protests must be in writing and delivered to the Fleet Captain, Fleet Secretary or their authorized representative, by 22:00 the evening of the race. The Fleet Captain, Fleet Secretary or their authorized representative will from hence forth in this sailing instruction be referred to as the Fleet Captain.

   Upon receipt of a written protest, the Fleet Captain may contact the parties to schedule an arbitration meeting. The meeting will be held the as soon as practical the evening of the race at the KPYC. The Fleet Captain will appoint an arbitrator for the meeting. The arbitrator may be a member of the fleet but not directly involved in the incident in question.

   The arbitrator, in a private meeting between one authorized representative from each boat, preferably the Skippers, shall listen to a recounting of the incident by each party. No witnesses or other third parties will be allowed in this meeting. The arbitrator will verbally render one of the three types of opinions.

   A. There was no breach of a rule. If the protestor agrees the protest is withdrawn. If the protestor doesn’t agree the protest is referred to the KPYC standing protest committee without prejudice.

   B. There was a breach of a rule by one or both boats involved. The representative of the offending boat(s) have the option of accepting a 40% alternative scoring penalty calculated as prescribed in RRS 44.3c or referring the protest to the KPYC standing protest committee. Referrals to the protest committee shall be without prejudice. If the penalty is accepted, the protest cannot be reopened, made the subject of a redress request or appealed by the penalized boat.

   C. The protest should be referred to the KPYC standing protest committee.

Only protest involving part 2 and rule 31 of the RRS are eligible for arbitration. Protest involving the other rules shall be referred to the KPYC standing protest committee.
As guidance for arbitrators, the arbitration meeting should generally should not be longer than 10 to 15 minutes. Incidents that are complex, that involve more than two boats, have significantly different versions of the incident or involve injury, serious damage or if there is a question of the seriousness of damage should be referred to the KPYC standing protest committee.

The arbitrator shall not discuss the meeting or the protest with anyone if the protest was referred to the KPYC standing protest committee and shall not be part of the jury hearing the protest in question.

The 40% scoring penalty described herein shall not be available as a penalty for protests referred to the KPYC standing protest committee.

Protest referred to the KPYC sanding protest committee will generally be heard the subsequent week at the KPYC. The chairman of the committee will contact the parties and set the specific time and place of the hearing.

15. Radio Communication and Emergency Conditions.

- Except in an emergency, a boat shall not make or receive radio communications not available to all boats while racing. This restriction also applies to mobile telephones.
- The Race Committee will utilize Ch 68 VHF for communications with competing boats for race information, change of course, etc. Failure to do so shall not be grounds for redress.
- Boats shall monitor VHF Channel 68.
- Emergency conditions will be reported directly to Race Committee on VHF 68. Boats in need of assistance will further contact necessary authorities on channel 16.

16. Safety.

- All commercial traffic in the channel should be considered “Restricted in Ability to Maneuver,” as defined in Rule 18 of The International Regulations for Avoiding Collisions at Sea (COLREGS), and as such, have the right-of-way in all circumstances.
- Boats will conform to all government regulations. Class rules regarding safety requirements will apply as prescribed in section 1 of these sailing instructions.
- All boats are required to have a VHF on board.
- All boats are encouraged to carry a GPS. GPS use during races is not allowed.

17. Scoring. The Low Point Scoring System with 70% of races counting RRS A2 & A4 will apply, except as modified herein.

18. Results. Results will be announced at the KPYC the evening of the race and will be posted on the KPYC bulletin board and on www.sailpsa.org
ATTACHMENT 1 - Alternative Penalties for Breaking Some Class Rules.

Alternative scoring penalties shall apply for breaking certain class rules. All of these scoring penalties shall be calculated as described in rule 44.3(c) and shall be applied to all races for which the boat was in non-compliance.
